

DIMITRI PANARETAKIS

Actor – Stage Director – Composer

Dimitri Panaretakis is an actor, stage director, and music composer with more than 30 years of experience in Athens and in London. Born in Athens, he graduated from Anavryta Classical Studies Lyceum before pursuing classical guitar and music theory at the National Conservatory of Greece. He also studied Law at Democritus University of Thrace before moving to London to train in stage acting at the Webber Douglas Academy. Additionally, he completed a year-long acting course at Richmond Drama School under the guidance of acclaimed British actor David Whitworth.

In his ten-year career in London, he collaborated with more than 15 theatres and production companies, including the North Pole Theatre, the Kenneth More Theatre, the Mermaid Theatre, and the Richmond Studio. During those years, he also worked at the Royal Opera House – Covent Garden as an usher in the Royal Box. Notably, he composed the original music for the Irish play Riverman by Sam Dowling, which was awarded Best Original Music for a Play by the American Journalists Association.

Since returning to Greece, Dimitri is focused on composing music for the stage and directing plays aiming to promote the cultural depth of Greek civilisation to audiences across the globe. He also occasionally performs as an actor. His projects have gained support from many organizations, such as the Greek National Tourism Organisation, the National Bank of Greece and the UNESCO Club of Arts, Literature, and Sciences of Greece.

Between 2010-2013, he served as the theater director at the Theatrical Stage 'Zoe Laskari' at the Athinais cultural center. Among other roles, he was the production director for the play ROSE by Martin Sherman, directed by Adolph Shapiro, starring Zoe Laskari.

In 2018, his anthem In Harmony was nominated by the Greek Olympic Committee for inclusion in the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games Opening Ceremony. However, when the Japanese committee requested the removal of his name from the final credits, Dimitri withdrew his candidacy.

Since 2025, he has been teaching Drama Education and Theatre Play to children and adults - members and residents of the Panhellenic Association of Parents, Guardians and Friends of People with Disabilities "HERMES" located at The Ellinikon Greece.
